I am working on the procedure for the testing of injection wells scheduled on the week of Sep 11, 2015. I am planning to submit the procedure next week, by Aug 19, 2015. I will include Joel on the ecopy and will send him the hard copy as well.

Thanks,

Sonnie

Thanks Ray. On another topic, since the testing is scheduled for the week of Sept 21, I wanted to check in with regard to the status of your testing plan submittal. I am not sure if I mentioned this to you, but I told Sonnie that my colleague Joel Coffman will witness the testing, so please keep him in the loop.

Thanks, Michele

Hi Ray,

Thanks for getting in touch – I had suggested to Sonnie in my prior email that I thought I would have more information regarding the aquifer exemption package this week, however we are still sorting through the package. I will get back to you as soon as I have some information to transmit.

Sincerely,

Michele
